

Fourth Grade Choice Board

Students should choose at least one activity from each subject area to complete each day. Each activity should take no more than 15-20 minutes. Place a check on the activities completed. Parents should sign the bottom of the form and return to the teacher within one week of returning to school.

Reading	Writing	Math	Science/Social Studies
Read for 20 minutes. Write a summary of what you read in your spiral notebook.	Write a paragraph about what you would buy if you had $100 to spend at your favorite store. Be sure to include a topic sentence and at least 3 supporting details.	Practice math multiplication flash cards. If you do not have flash cards, create your own.	Describe the costs and benefits of personal saving and spending choices.
Read for 20 minutes. Write the main characters, setting, and plot in your notebook. Put the main events in the plot in sequential order.	After watching one of your favorite TV shows, describe the characters. Be sure to include their character traits and how the characters change throughout the show.	Put pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters in a baggies. Draw a few and write the amount in decimal and fraction form.	Watch a science BrainPop video and take the quiz. possible topics: weather, climate, food chains, food webs, ecosystems
Read for 20 minutes. Write the main idea and three key details of the chapter that you read.	Give your opinion on which is better, ice cream or cake. Support your opinion with reasons and evidence.	Create and solve 3-5 word problems using the CUBES method.	Watch a social studies BrainPop Jr. video and take the quiz.
Read for 20 minutes. Find a cause and effect relationship in the story and describe it in your notebook.	Pretend you are interviewing the main character of a story. Write 5 questions you would ask the character and answer them in complete sentences.	Create ten addition and/or subtraction problems with four or five digits.	Write about why we need rules and laws.
Read for 20 minutes. Explain the conflict or problem in your book and make a prediction	Write a new ending for your favorite fairy tale. Write the theme of the story with the new	Play place value war with playing cards. Draw 6 cards, and arrange them to create	Pretend you are a soldier in the Civil War or American Revolution. Write a paragraph

about how the problem will be solved.	ending.	the greatest or smallest number. Practice reading the numbers correctly and identifying why one number has a larger value than the other.	about a day in your life.
---------------------------------------	---------	---	---------------------------

Student: _____ Parent Signature: _____

Date: _____