

Getting Ready for 6th Grade!

Over the summer, buy a combination lock and help your child practice!

Talk about the importance of learning organizational skills!

Check out the school's website and familiarize yourself with the information they post there!

Listen to your child and discuss any concerns or fears they may have about starting middle school.

Let them know that, although they may be nervous, they will survive!